The minutes of the July meetings vere read and approved. The aldermen were requested to meet the councilmen in joint session.

After the announcement of Ex-President Johnson's death, in joint session, the aldermen returned to their hall and resumed business.

The reports of city officers were read and approved. The usual requisitions for supplies for ire and engineer's departments and city nospital were presented and allowed. Petitions from Mrs. Judkins for permission to keep a confectionery without paying license, and from Anton Smith for pay for water used by fire depart-ment, were rejected. An invitation to attend the laying of the corner-stone of the Odd Fellows' orphan asylum was read and accepted.

The committee on accounts reported approved bills amounting to $17,383 99, which were allowed, with the exception of the pay of the general council, which item was referred to the city attorney for his official opinion.

A fine imposed on W. B. Wood by the recorder was remitted. A communication in regard to the Madison-street bridge was presented recommending the passage of an ordi-nance to prevent "furious" driving over the bridge. Mississ poi River raillate Ex-President Andrew Johnson: Mayor's Office, City Hall, } Memphis, Tenn., August 4, 1875.}

Honorable Board of General Council: GENTLEMEN-The cause I have for cially to the citizens of Tennessee. God, in his infinite wisdom and goodness, has seen proper to take from our midst one to whom you have often by your action given evidence of your appreciation of his worth and true greatness. To-day the civilized nations of the earth tender sympathy to these United States for the less sustained by the friends of cates of equal and exact justice to all, without regard to race or creed. Andrew Johnson, United States senator and Ex-President of the United States, is dead. He departed this life on Satur-day, the thirty-first of July, in Carter county, in this State, of paralysis, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. You will, no doubt, present suitable resolutions expressive of the grief of our fellowcitizens, and of the general council, of the city of Memphis at the loss, at this particular time, of the valuable services and wise counsels of this truly great patriot and statesman, at a time when the people of the entire country were turned loward him to hearken to his pleadings for brotherly love, for peace and good will toward each other. Alas! gentlemen, we have to mourn for the death of Andrew Johnson; he whose every official act proved that he lived for, and desired. only for the preservation of the constiution of the republic, and whose dying request was that he be shrouded in the flag of his country. With great respect, your obedient servant, JOHN LOAGUE, Mayor. Alderman Metcalf presented the folowing resolutions on the same subject: WHEREAS, The sudden death of Ex-President Andrew Johnson and United States senator elect for the State of Tennessee, has produced profound sorrow and great less to our whole country,

Petitioners would state that they are property-owners in the immediate neighborhood of these houses; that the property is assessed at its full value by city, and that they have punctually paid the taxes to the city as other good citizens. They would state that their property is assessed at many thousands of dollars, and that the taxes which they are required to pay into the treasury of the city is also counted by thousands annually. They therefore respectfully submit whether they are not entitled to the protection of the city governmen from having their property rendered almost valueless by such a nuisance. They submit that if the action of the board of police commissioners is to be sustained, it amounts to a protection to such nuisances, wherever they exist in the city. and that if this is to be the policy of the city government in reference to such houses and their inmates, the sooner it is known the better, that good citizens may know whether they are quietly to coumb to the evil or can ask the publie authorities for aid in its suppression They state that the fact that four such ouses are permitted to remain with abandoned prostitutes in one of the best neighborhoods of the city, within a stone's-throw of three of its principal churches, and of its principal street, besides being an immediate injury of the gravest character to your petition

THE most blooming place in Memphis is on Howard's Row; as you walk up to the store you see White Rose meal on one side, and Rose-bud meal on the other, and in the store S. Rose, the corn-meal king. Yesterday his majasty left for Hot Springs, Arkansas, suffering from that foe of royalty-the gout. We hope to see him back, in a month, re-juvenated and as ready for "a corner in meal" as ever. MISS ROSA LEWIS was serenaded last night at the residence of W. W. Schoolfield, of this city, in whose hospitable mansion she has been a reigning belle for the last four mouths. Miss Lewis leaves to-day for Virginia. She was serenaded last night by that excellent band composed of our best citizens, Messrs Joseph F. Taylor, E. Schlesinger, Ju-lius Kaufman, A. Chapshy, Sam New, and T. Denny. These six gentlemen comprise the Sodality dramatic orches-tra, and is regarded as one of the best bands in the city.
